

Guidelines for Authors

1. In order for your manuscripts to be included in the conference CD_ROM and program,
 - 1) they have to be prepared in accordance with the given instructions and be within a maximum length of six A4 pages each;
 - 2) they should be directly submitted to and safely received by Causal Productions, the conference CD_ROM contractor, by May 31, 2002; and
 - 3) the signed copyright form and completed registration form with payment should be submitted to and received by the secretariat of ASCC2002 by May 31, 2002.

Strict adherence to this deadline and to the instructions for manuscript preparation and submission is essential for the timely production of the CD-ROM. A maximum of 3 papers is allowed for each registration.

2. Your hotel reservation should be directly sent or faxed to the hotel you have chosen.
3. If you need a visa to attend the Conference, please produce this email to the nearest Singapore Mission in your place. Generally, it takes 2 - 6 weeks to process visa applications. If you encounter any difficulties with your visa application, you may send your enquiry to the ASCC 2002 Secretariat at ASCC2002@nus.edu.sg.
4. The presentation format of your paper(s) and finalists for two ASCC 2002 awards will be notified in July 2002 together with the conference program in which your paper abstracts, index and schedule are included.
